

Financial Literacy through Drama

DAREarts SUMMER CAMP explored financial literacy and moral debt through Shakespeare's The Merchant of Venice. DAREarts youth toured the Stratford Festival's costume warehouse, saw the play and then produced and presented their own version reflecting what they learned about money management. We thank SEDI and the TD Financial Literacy Grant Fund for its support.

Click here to read more

MINING MOVIE MAKING: DAREarts, Noront Resources and Engage Learn partnered again this summer to help Northern Ontario Aboriginal youth learn about geology and film making through Mining Movie Making Camps.

Click here to read more

Exploring Icebergs and Values

DARE2draw: Wilderness painter Cory Trepanier inspired kids to explore the beauty of icebergs in unique cards which they created to raise awareness and funds for DAREarts' First Roots Program. Follow the Blue Goose as we head off again to Northern Ontario First Nations communities.

Click here to read more

THE POWER OF TOGETHER: Northbridge Insurance hosted a DAREarts printmaking workshop for 40 young artists. Students created works of art which will adorn its offices across Canada, embracing common values of both DAREarts and Northbridge.

Click here to read more

DAREarts Heroes

Connor and the COC: Our own 10 year old Connor was selected to join the Canadian Opera Company on stage for Peter Grimes. Having found his passion, Connor says that "...without DAREarts I wouldn't be here." Congratulations, Connor!

Click here to read more

NATIONAL FUNDRAISING PARTNER: Northbridge Insurance is about to launch a campaign encouraging employees across Canada to help DAREarts reach more kids with their donations. We hope their support will also encourage others. Thank you, Northbridge!

Follow the DAREarts Blue Goose to fly our teachers north!

follow us on twitter

Visit our Blog | Donate | Contact Us | Unsubscribe

LEAD SUPPORTERS:

